You also represent and warrant that you are giving your consent to Edge as a third-party service provider to use the IBV data on behalf of the FI in connection with your consumer finance transaction or application with them. Yodlee, Sophtron, Akoya, and Flinks are financial data aggregators, providing consumer authorized financial data to us and to a wide variety of other lenders, financial institutions, and merchants. In this section, “Verification Service” means Yodlee, Sophtron, Akoya, Flinks, or any other vendor that provides us consumer-authorized financial data. For more information about the consumer-authorized financial data aggregation industry, you can consult your state consumer credit administrator or can review the CFPB’s Consumer Protection Principles for Consumer-Authorized Financial Data Sharing and Aggregation.

1. Ability-to-Repay Verification

IBV is a consumer-authorized action, so you have no obligation to perform IBV if you decide you do not want to complete the transaction with your FI. But if you do want to complete it by performing IBV, then the following procedures will apply.

- You will provide the Verification Service with your login credentials to the bank account or prepaid debit card related to the transaction with your FI (your “Repayment Account”).
- The Verification Service will obtain recent transactions from your Repayment Account and will transmit that data to us. We will then use that data as directed by your FI.
- Although we will review the Repayment Account data transmitted by the Verification Service to us, we will not receive or store the login credentials to your Repayment Account. Instead, the Verification Service will use and store those credentials in accordance with the Verification Service’s terms and conditions. You will decide whether you accept the Verification Service’s terms and conditions before you perform IBV.
- For your convenience and review, this document provides a Yodlee Privacy Notice link, a Flinks Privacy Notice link, an Akoya Privacy Notice link, and a Sophtron Privacy Notice link. Before performing IBV, we encourage you to visit the Verification Service’s website to review the privacy notice then in effect. Your review will ensure that the above links are still current and that you accept the terms and conditions under which the Verification Service will use and store your Repayment Account login credentials and other financial data.

By using the IBV Widget, you authorize us to receive and store recent transaction data from your Bank Account.

2. Other Uses

Subject to applicable laws and other limitations, we may use the transaction data from your Bank Account for purposes other than verifying your ability to repay. These other uses may include those listed below (collectively “Other Uses”).

- Conducting fraud screening, and identity verification.
- Improving our service quality.

By checking the box next to the IBV Consent document and then clicking the “Continue” or “Agree” button, you also authorize us to use Verification Service data not only for the purpose of verifying your ability to repay but also for Other Uses. You also acknowledge that the login credentials to your Repayment Account are used and stored by The Verification Service and not by us.

In the Terms of Use, this optional consent is called “Telephone Consumer Protection Act consent” or “TCPA consent.”

D. Consent to Telephone Monitoring and Recording

By using the Site and using the IBV Widget, you authorize us and our affiliates, agents, and assignees to monitor, tape, or electronically record our telephone calls with you, whether a call is inbound or outbound from your perspective.

E. Consent to Governing Law

The Site is located in the State of Illinois. The Arbitration Agreement described below shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1-16. All other sections of the Terms of Use shall be governed by the laws of the State of Illinois without regard to its conflicts of law provisions.

IV. ARBITRATION AGREEMENT WITH CLASS-ACTION WAIVER

You or we may elect to arbitrate Claims. You and we agree that if we have a Claim against you or you have a Claim against us, or any of our agents, successors, assigns, affiliates, owners, officers, directors, employees, or representatives, then the person or entity asserting the claim or against whom the claim is asserted may elect to have such Claim(s) resolved by arbitration on an individual basis as provided below, and not by a judge or jury in court. The party electing arbitration agrees to notify the other party of its election pursuant to applicable rules of arbitration or as otherwise provided by law. If a party files a lawsuit in court asserting Claim(s) that are subject to arbitration and the other party files a motion to compel arbitration with the court which is granted, it will be the responsibility of the party asserting the Claim(s) to select an arbitration administrator in accordance with this Arbitration Agreement and start the arbitration proceeding in accordance with the administrator's rules and procedures. Even if all parties have opted to litigate a Claim in court, you or we may elect arbitration with respect to any Claim made by a new party or any Claim later asserted by a party in that or any related or unrelated lawsuit (including a claim initially asserted on an individual basis but modified to be asserted on a class, representative or multi-party basis).

Nothing in that litigation shall constitute a waiver of any rights under this Arbitration Agreement.

What is arbitration? Arbitration is a procedure used to resolve disputes. By participating in arbitration, YOU GIVE UP YOUR RIGHT TO GO TO COURT OR TO HAVE A JURY TRIAL. In an arbitration proceeding, a professionally trained, neutral, third party arbitrator holds a hearing.

The hearing is less formal than a trial in court. Each party has the opportunity to tell his or her side of the dispute. The arbitrator will review each party's case and make a decision. The decision is binding on the parties.

What is a "Claim?" "Claims" means any and all claims, disputes or controversies that arise under common law, federal or state statute or regulation, local ordinance or otherwise, and that we or our servicers or agents have against you or that you have against us, our affiliates, servicers, agents, successors, assigns, representatives, directors, officers and employees. This Arbitration Agreement is also binding upon and may be enforced by any third party who is named as a co-defendant in a Claim asserted by one party against another party. "Claims" also includes any and all claims that arise out of or relate to (i) your use of the IBV Widget, or (ii) the relationship between you and us. "Claims" also includes initial claims, counterclaims, crossclaims, and third-party claims.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, "Claims" does not include disputes about the validity, enforceability, coverage, or scope of this Arbitration Agreement or any part thereof (including but not limited to the provision titled "Is class arbitration allowed?"); all such disputes are for a court and not an arbitrator to decide. "Claims" also does not include any individual action brought by you or us in small claims court (or an equivalent court), unless such action is transferred, removed, or appealed to a different court or otherwise exceeds the jurisdiction of the small claims court or equivalent court.

What rules apply to arbitration? The arbitration will be governed by the consumer arbitration rules of the Better Business Bureau ("BBB"). Alternatively, you may elect to have the arbitration heard by and under the consumer rules of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Service ("JAMS"). If neither the BBB nor JAMS can serve and you and we cannot agree on a replacement, then a court with jurisdiction will select the arbitrator, who must abide by the terms of this Arbitration Agreement. The arbitrator will follow the applicable substantive law, consistent with the FAA, that would apply if an individual matter had been brought in court and may award any damages or other relief or remedies that would apply under applicable law to an individual action brought in court, including, without limitation, punitive damages (which shall be governed by the constitutional standards employed by the courts) and injunctive, equitable, and declaratory relief (but only in favor of the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide relief warranted by that party's individual claim). Any arbitration hearing, if one is held, will take place at a location near your residence. The arbitration will be conducted by a single arbitrator, except that any party may appeal the single arbitrator's award to a 3-arbitrator panel, which will have de novo review, if the award or the amount in controversy exceeds $25,000. The arbitration award will be in writing. Judgment upon the award may be entered by any party in any court having jurisdiction and will be final, binding, and non-appealable except for any appeal rights under the FAA. All statutes of limitations and privileges that are applicable to a Claim will apply to any arbitration between you and us. No arbitration award involving the parties will have any preclusive effect as to issues or claims in any dispute involving anyone who is not a party to the arbitration, nor will an arbitration award in prior disputes involving other parties have preclusive effect in an arbitration between the parties to this Arbitration Agreement.

Is class arbitration allowed? No. If either you or we elect to resolve one or more Claims by arbitration, then such Claim(s) will be arbitrated only on an individual basis. There will be no right or authority for any Claims to be arbitrated on a class or other representative basis. The arbitrator will not conduct class arbitration and will not allow you to act as a representative or private attorney general or in any other representative capacity. In addition, the arbitrator will not join or consolidate Claims by or against you with claims by or against any other person or entity unless all parties otherwise agree in writing.

Who pays the costs of arbitration? We will pay our share of any arbitration fees. If you are unable to pay your share of the costs of arbitration, then your arbitration fees may be waived by the BBB or other arbitration service provider you have selected. If your properly submitted request to waive the arbitration fees is denied, or if the arbitration service you have selected does not have a waiver procedure, then we will, at your request, pay your share of the arbitration fees. We will always pay any fees or expenses that we are required to pay by law or that we are required to pay for this Arbitration Agreement to be enforced. You and we each agree to pay our own expenses for attorneys' fees, experts, and witnesses, unless applicable law gives you or us the right to recover any of those expenses from the other. If the arbitrator finds that the substance of a claim or the relief sought is frivolous or brought for an improper purpose (as measured by the standards in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(b)), then the arbitrator may award sanctions in the form of fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the other party or parties.

What law applies? Since this Arbitration Agreement is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce, it will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. Sections 116, as amended (the “FAA”). To the extent that state law is applicable under the FAA, the laws of the State of Illinois will apply.

Other Arbitration Terms. This Arbitration Agreement is an independent agreement, and it will survive the termination of the Deposit Account Agreement, the closing of your deposit accounts with us, the closing and repayment of your deposit accounts with us, and any bankruptcy (to the extent permitted by applicable bankruptcy law), and it will be binding upon us, our successors, and assigns, and upon you and your heirs and assigns. In the event of a conflict between this Arbitration Agreement, on the one hand, and the arbitration administrator’s rules or other terms of this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us, on the other hand, this Arbitration Agreement shall govern. If any portion of this Arbitration Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, then the remaining portions shall nevertheless remain in force, subject to two exceptions: (1) if a determination is made that the restrictions in this Arbitration Agreement prohibiting the arbitrator from conducting a class or other representative proceeding or awarding relief on behalf of third parties are unenforceable, and that determination is not reversed on appeal, then the Arbitration Agreement shall be void in its entirety; and (2) if a court determines that a public injunctive relief Claim may proceed notwithstanding the restrictions in this Arbitration Agreement prohibiting the arbitrator from conducting a class or other representative proceeding or awarding relief on behalf of third parties, and that determination is not reversed on appeal, then the public injunctive relief Claim will be decided by a court, any individual Claims will be arbitrated, and the parties will ask the court to stay the public injunctive relief Claim until the other Claims have been finally concluded.

CLASS ACTION WAIVER. BY SIGNING THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, YOU AGREE THAT YOU ARE WAIVING ANY RIGHT YOU MAY HAVE TO BRING, JOIN OR PARTICIPATE IN ANY CLASS ACTION, CLASS ARBITRATION PROCEEDING, OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION AGAINST US OR RELATED THIRD PARTIES.

B. Cookies

"Cookie" means the small data files transferred by a website to your computer's hard drive. Cookies are typically classified as either "session" cookies or "persistent" cookies. Session cookies do not stay on your computer after you close your browser. Persistent cookies remain on your computer until you delete them or until they expire. Generally, web browsers automatically accept cookies by default. But you can usually stop or limit cookie acceptance by adjusting the preferences on your browser. In some instances, stopping or limiting cookies may render some site features unavailable or prevent the site from displaying properly.

We and our service providers send and receive cookies when you use the Site or other sites that are "powered by" a third party on our behalf or that display our advertisements ("Cookie Sites"). Cookie Sites use cookies when you register an account, make purchases, request information, or personalize site settings.

It is your responsibility to review a Mobile App Venue's terms and conditions and to determine what usage rules apply to your use of a Mobile App (the "Usage Rules"). These Usage Rules may depend on the Mobile App Venue, your Device, and your method for downloading the Mobile App.

The Account features available from a Mobile App ("Mobile App Services") may be more limited than the Account features available when you access your Account from your personal computer. Additionally, we make no representation or warranty that any Mobile App will be compatible with any specific mobile Device or operating system or with any hardware, software, or equipment installed or used on your mobile Device. For example, the Mobile App that we are currently developing will be supported by only iTunes and Google Play; other Mobile App Venues will not be supported.

When you download or use a Mobile App on your Device, you are responsible for the fees your carrier charges for your use of its wireless network. The functionality of a Mobile App will depend on the connection and speed of the wireless network. During a time of poor connection or speed, a financial transaction you attempt to conduct from a Mobile App may be affected. Please contact our Customer Support Group to verify whether an attempted transaction has been completed.

You acknowledge and agree that we and our affiliates, agents, and assignees are not liable to you for any financial or other loss you may sustain by failing to complete a financial transaction with us on a Mobile App, whether that failure was caused by compatibility or inoperability problems, wireless network outages, or some other issue.

Finally, although your use of a Mobile App is subject to the Usage Rules, your use of the Account will continue to be subject to the Terms of Use. The Terms of Use govern your use of the Account no matter how you access the Account, whether from a Mobile App or from a personal computer.
